

URI Catholic Center Update

Merry Christmas from the students, staff and volunteers of the Catholic Center at URI! We had a great semester of worship, learning, service and fellowship! We are blessed as a community! Please be mindful that the Catholic Center will remain closed throughout break. Normal hours will resume on Monday, January 22. While we are experiencing progress with our chapel window project, the daily noon Mass will continue to be held in Christ the King until otherwise announced. The 8pm Mass will not be held tonight or next Sunday, but will be held on January 7th and 14th, without student ministers or music. Our full complement of ministers and musicians will return with the first Student Mass of the new semester on Sunday, January 21. Until next semester, thank you for your support, encouragement and prayers! -Fr. Joe

Below are some pictures from our last few events of the semester, our trip to LaSalette Shrine and our Christmas party with bonfire and mug exchange. Many thanks to our Student Executive Board for planning these and all of our activities this semester! Looking forward now to the Spring...
